

Senior Manager: Healthcare Management

The position of Senior Manager: Healthcare Management is currently vacant and needs to be filled. The Senior Manager: Healthcare Management will report to the Executive: Healthcare Management and form part of the Healthcare Management (HM) Division.

The total remuneration package for this position is R 568 850 per annum (cost to company).

The Senior Manager: Healthcare Management will provide support to the Executive: Healthcare Management in managing the Scheme's clinical risk profile and claims experience through the following key performance areas (KPAs):

- Review and monitor the Schemes' managed care arrangements and clinical risk profile
- Implement and manage GEMS tariffs and reimbursement arrangements
- Coordinate and participate in stakeholder engagements
- Coordinate and participate in engagements with various identified healthcare provider groups
- Monitor and manage the Scheme's healthcare networks
- Support the Scheme's benefit design activities
- Manage staff in the Healthcare Management division

Qualification requirements are:

- Tertiary qualification (diploma or degree) in Clinical Sciences (medical/ nursing/ physiotherapy/ psychology, etc.) and must have a strong orientation to the medical field of work
- Experience in a managed care environment will be an advantage
- Minimum 5 years work experience in the healthcare funding/ medical scheme industry
- Minimum 3 years as a Manager/ Supervisor in the healthcare funding/ medical scheme industry
- Must have experience in the development and presentation of management reports
- Excellent computer literacy and MS Office skills
- Sound qualitative and quantitative analysis skills
- Excellent communication and writing skills
- Sound planning/ project management skills
- Attention to detail; and
- Must be a self starter who is able to work independently

Should you be interested, please apply for the position by emailing your CV to jobs@gems.gov.za

The closing date for applications is 22 March 2011.

GEMS employs people with the highest level of integrity – submission to appropriate pre-employment assessment is obligatory to be considered for the position.